Pulse Wave (“Company”)

Website Privacy Policy

Revised as of July, 2023

This privacy policy (“policy”) will help you understand how Pulse Wave (“us”, “we”, “our”) uses and protects the data you provide to us when you visit and use pulse-wave.io (“website”, “service”).

The websites located at pulse-wave.io are operated by us. We created this privacy policy to demonstrate our firm commitment to the privacy of our visitors and customers. We are committed to respecting your privacy and recognizing your need for appropriate protection and management of personally identifiable information you share with us (the phrases “personally identifiable information” and “personal information” mean any information by which you, individually, can be identified, such as your name, address, telephone number, etc.). The purpose of this privacy policy is to inform you when you visit our Website how we use such information, and the choices you have regarding our use of, and your ability to review and correct, your information.

We reserve the right to change this policy at any given time, of which you will be promptly updated. If you want to make sure that you are up to date with the latest changes, we advise you to frequently visit this page.

What User Data We Collect

When you visit the website, we may collect the following data:

- Your IP address.
- Your contact information and email address.
- Other information such as interests and preferences.
- Data profile regarding your online behavior on our website.

In general, you may visit many pages of the Website without telling us who you are or revealing any personal information about yourself. We may track the Internet domain address from which people visit the Website and analyze this data for trends and statistics, but individual users will remain anonymous unless they voluntarily tell us who they are.

Sometimes (such as if you send us a message, download a document, register to receive emails or other material) we will ask you to provide personal information about yourself, such as your name, company, email address, telephone number, physical address, or payment information if making a purchase. We may also maintain a record of your online purchase. Whether or not you choose to provide the information we request is entirely up to you. But, if you choose not to provide the information we request, you may be unable to purchase products, or access certain services, offers, and content on the website.

If you choose to purchase a product or service with us through our online registration, we will collect additional personal information, including your billing address, shipping address, and credit card number and expiration date in order to process your purchase properly.

Why We Collect Your Data

We are collecting your data for several reasons:

- To better understand your needs.
- To improve our services and products.
- To send you promotional emails containing the information we think you will find interesting.
- To contact you to fill out surveys and participate in other types of market research.
- To customize our website according to your online behavior and personal preferences.

Your personal information enables us to provide you with the information you have requested, provide you with information regarding the status of your assets and transaction, fulfill your purchases, and provide you with information regarding future products and services that may suit your particular interests. We also use your personal information to help identify you if you lose your password and to help you quickly find information on the website.

If you believe that any of your personal information is incorrect, or has been changed since your registration at the Website, please send an email message to info@pulse-wave.io explaining the correction change and provide any relevant confirmation or reference number.

Safeguarding and Securing the Data

Pulse Wave is committed to securing your data and keeping it confidential. Pulse Wave has done all in its power to prevent data theft, unauthorized access, and disclosure by implementing the latest technologies and software, which help us safeguard all the information we collect online.

Our Cookie Policy

Once you agree to allow our website to use cookies, you also agree to use the data it collects regarding your online behavior (analyze web traffic, web pages you spend the most time on, and websites you visit).

The data we collect by using cookies is used to customize our website to your needs. After we use the data for statistical analysis, the data is completely removed from our systems.

Please note that cookies don't allow us to gain control of your computer in any way. They are strictly used to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not so that we can provide a better experience for you.

If you want to disable cookies or receive notice when a cookie is being used by a website, you can do it by accessing the settings of your internet browser.

Links to Other Websites

Our website contains links that lead to other websites. If you click on these links we are not held responsible for your data and privacy protection. Visiting those websites is not governed by this privacy policy agreement. Make sure to read the privacy policy documentation of the website you go to from our website.

How Do We Share Your Information?

We will share your personal information with our partners and with third-party independent contractors for purposes of: (1) performing a function on behalf of Company, such as processing credit card transactions; (2) providing you with product offers via e-mail or postal mail; and (3) tracking information generated through the Website. Our partners and third-party independent contractors are obligated contractually not to use or share your personal information for unauthorized purposes.

Company also may disclose your personal information to comply with a court order, subpoena, search warrant, or other legal process; to comply with legal, regulatory, or administrative requirements of any governmental authorities; to protect and defend us, our subsidiaries and affiliates, and our officers, directors, employees, agents, contractors, and partners, in connection with any legal action, claim, or dispute; to enforce the Terms and Conditions of Use of the Website; to prevent imminent physical harm; and in the event that we find that your actions on the Website violate any laws, our Terms and Conditions of Use, and any of our usage guidelines for specific products and services.

Restricting the Collection of your Personal Data

At some point, you might wish to restrict the use and collection of your personal data. You can achieve this by doing the following:

When you are filling the forms on the website, make sure to check if there is a box which you can leave unchecked, if you don't want to disclose your personal information.

If you have already agreed to share your information with us, feel free to contact us via email and we will be more than happy to change this for you.

We will not lease, sell or distribute your personal information to any third parties, except as already stated herein, unless we have your permission. Your personal information will be used when we need to send you promotional materials if you agree to this privacy policy.

Opt Out

You may “opt out” of having your personal information shared for purposes of receiving product offers via email or post mail, and from receiving product offers directly from us via email or postal mail, by simply clicking on the statement “I Do Not Agree” provided in the Website the first time that you use your login and password to access the area of the Website that requires registration. Additionally, you can opt out by providing us written notice identifying which communications you choose not to receive by writing to us directly.

Security

The Website has security measure in place to protect the loss, misuse, and alteration of the information under our control. All credit card information utilizes state-of-the-art Secure Socket Layer (SSL) encryption technology and is Secure Electronic Transaction compliant.
